Additional information

The President of the IMT, I.P. may grant special circulation permits for vehicles:

- (* and **) That carry out loading or unloading during the periods provided in points, provided that the facilities where the loading or unloading takes place are served only by a road subject to driving bans and that the use of this road allows direct access to another route not subject to driving bans;
- Transporting of dangerous goods that are essential for the continuous operation of production units or for the satisfaction of exceptional needs for limited periods;
- When their displacement is indispensable and urgent, given reasons of public interest that it is important to safeguard.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the IMT, IP, may request an opinion from the competent official entities on the indispensability and urgency of transport.

For the purpose of preparing the authorization request, the entity interested in receiving the dangerous goods or with facilities exclusively served by routes subject to restrictions, must submit a reasoned request, which states:

- a) The exceptional circumstances underlying the request;
- b) The supplier and the shipper of the goods;
- c) The place of loading and unloading of the goods;
- d) In the case provided in the first paragraph, first indent, the identification of the vehicles to be used and the indication of the days and hours foreseen for circulation;
- e) The identification of the goods to be transported, mentioning the UN identification number and the official transport name.

The IMT, IP, publishes on its website information on the terms and the way in which authorization requests must be formulated.

The model of the special circulation permit, as well as the documents that accompany it and which, if requested, must be presented to the road inspection authorities, are approved by deliberation of the board of directors of IMT, IP.

In case of emergency, the vehicle may circulate without the authorization granted by the IMT, IP, provided that:

- a) The authorization request has been entered at the IMT, IP, before the transport is carried out;
- b) The territorially competent security force at the place of commencement of the transport has declared, in writing, that it does not object to the transport being carried out.
